

without his help and without the strength of other people who also love Jesus. Get more involved with your church this week! Find a way to participate in something in addition to attending a church service on Sunday morning. Check out your church's weekly bulletin, monthly newsletter, or website for ideas.