WEEKLY PLAN

Week 2: Tell The Good News

The good news must be told! We talk about evangelism a lot at church in small groups and on stage, but this week we want to focus on telling the Good News to others. This is an opportunity to be evangelists as a family.

PRAYER TIME

THIS IS YOUR DAILY SCRIPTURE:

But God proves his own love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us. How much more then, since we have now been justified by his blood, will we be saved through him from wrath (Rom. 5:8-9).

THIS IS YOUR DAILY PRAYER:

God, You have proven Your love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us. How much more then, since we have now been justified by His blood, will we be saved through Him from wrath. God, these are the people in my life that I pray know of Your love for them today. _____.

DRIVETIME

CONVERSATION

PARENT PRE-READING: “Follow me,” he told them, “and I will make you fish for people” (Matt. 4:19).

CONVERSATION STARTER: I was reading in Matthew and Jesus tells some of His disciples that He will make them fish for people. Why do you think Jesus used this metaphor with these guys that used to fish for a living?

STARTING QUESTIONS

If you could send a message to every single person in the world, but it had to be 10 words or less, what would you say and why?

READ THIS TOGETHER Sing to the Lord, bless his name; proclaim his salvation from day to day. Declare his glory among the nations, his wondrous works among all peoples (Psalm 96:2-3).

SCRIPTURAL APPLICATION QUESTIONS

What do you think it means to “proclaim his salvation”?

When it comes to your relationship with God, what are you thankful for?

Do you feel like you talk about your relationship with God to others? Why or why not?

How do you think you would feel if one of your close friends started talking to you more about their relationship with God?

FRIENDS FAMILY SHARE TIME

You may have family members or close friends that have made an impact in your relationship with God. Most of these people would love to also impact the life of your child. Set up a coffee or lunch and ask this person to share their faith story with your children. This will give you an opportunity to have someone else that you know and trust invest in your child and allow you to also say thank you for the impact that they have had in your own life.
