

MAKE IT STICK

5 Simple Ways You Can Make This Lesson Stick With your Kids

Unexplored Bible Stories Lesson 5

THIS WEEK'S LESSON: UNFAMILIAR SIGHTS AND SOUNDS

IN THE CAR:

Ask your child what they learned about this week on the drive home:

The jungle is filled with unfamiliar sights and sounds. When strange writing appeared on the walls at King Balshazzar's banquet, it was a sight no one had seen before. And no one knew what it meant until God used Daniel to deliver an important message to the king. Daniel 5, The Writing on the Wall

HANGING OUT:

Make this week's lesson real:

Ask your kids to teach you what they know about God. Encourage them to use the Bible if they can. You can help them after to look up some verses to better explain what they tried to teach you.

AT DINNER:

Here are some great discussion starters:

- What message did God send Balshazzar?
- How was Daniel able to interpret this message?
- How can we use the Bible to teach others about Jesus?

AT BEDTIME:

Quiz your child on this week's memory verse:

"Guide me in your truth. Teach me. You are God my Savior. I put my hope in you all day long." Psalm 25:5 (NirV)

PARENT TIME:

What you need to know:

If we want to not just defend our faith but share it with others, we need to know what we believe. Make a commitment to becoming Bible literate by reading the Bible daily. Read with your kids if you can, and encourage them to spend time reading the Bible.
