

MAKE IT STICK

5 Simple Ways You Can Make This Lesson Stick With your Kids

Fruit of the Spirit 3

THIS WEEK'S LESSON: PEACE

IN THE CAR:

Ask your child what they learned about this week on the drive home:

Peace isn't just about feeling calm; we need to be peacemakers, helping people find peace in the midst of conflict. 1 Samuel 25:1-35, Abigail Creates Peace

HANGING OUT:

Make this week's lesson real:

Talk to your kids about how they can be peacemakers in the home. When a dispute arises this week, how can they handle it without fighting?

AT DINNER:

Here are some great discussion starters:

- Why was David angry with Nabal?
- What did Abigail do to make peace?
- How can we be peacemakers at school?

AT BEDTIME:

Quiz your child on this week's memory verse:

"But the fruit the Holy Spirit produces is love, joy and peace. It is being patient, kind and good. It is being faithful and gentle and having control of oneself. There is no law against things of that kind." Galatians 5:22-23 (NIRV)

PARENT TIME:

What you need to know:

The world needs more peacemakers. We need them on social media, at school, on the playing field, at work, and at home. Pray that your children will become people who seek peace. Pray that the peacemaking can begin at home.
