

with markers, stickers, and other trimmings. Take the completed items to someone who needs cheering up — perhaps a neighbor, a friend, or someone in the hospital. Tell the person that God cares for them all the time and will help them and us in our troubles.