WEEKLY PLAN

Week 2: The Correction

Having a conversation with your teen about their pride is not always easy. They can become defensive and may not even see the problem themselves. However, these conversations are necessary to have and can lead to some great victories. Our prayers are with your family as you have grace-filled conversations that point your children to the goodness of God.

PRAYER TIME

THIS IS YOUR DAILY SCRIPTURE:

Yours, Lord, is the greatness and the power and the glory and the splendor and the majesty, for everything in the heavens and on earth belongs to you. Yours, Lord, is the kingdom, and you are exalted as head over all (1 Chron. 29:11).

THIS IS YOUR DAILY PRAYER:

Lord, Yours is the greatness and the power and the glory and the splendor and the majesty. Everything in the heavens and on earth belongs to You. God, these are my most valued people in my life _____. They are Yours. Yours, Lord is the kingdom, and You are exalted as head over all.

DRIVETIME

CONVERSATION

PARENT PRE-READING: Live in harmony with one another. Do not be proud; instead, associate with the humble. Do not be wise in your own estimation (Rom. 12:16).

CONVERSATION STARTER: I was reading Romans 12 and it encourages us to live in harmony with one another. Who is someone that you find difficult to live in harmony with? What makes this difficult for you? What are some action steps you can take to make this relationship better?

DINNER TIME

CONVERSATION

STARTING QUESTIONS

Tell me about a time when you failed at something but learned a valuable lesson?

READ THIS TOGETHER When arrogance comes, disgrace follows, but with humility comes wisdom (Prov. 11:2).

SCRIPTURAL APPLICATION QUESTIONS

Becoming arrogant can happen to any of us at any time. As a family that loves one another, what would be the best way to correct each other when we see this behavior?

How might being someone who is arrogant negatively affect that person or even their family?

What might be the benefits of remaining humble?

What do you believe are some keys to growing in humility? Do you think this is something you need to grow in?

ACTIVITY TIME

Road Trip to Nowhere

This trip does not need to be long or cumbersome. It can be around town or to a few neighboring towns. Jump in the car and drive around a little. Explore with your family and ask that no one use phones or screens in the car. Ask your kids if they want to turn right or left. Find a new area or place you haven't been before. You may even find a new, wonderful diner in the middle of nowhere. Your goal is to make a memory and spend a little time together away from everything else.
